Intensive In-Home Program

“My daughter loves her Thompson therapist. She is happy every time she knows you are coming. She knows you guys really care for her and are helping her become her best self. That makes all the difference in the world to me. ~ IIH client”

Clinical care and counseling for children ages 3-21 and their families within their home or community setting. This support is for extremely serious situations requiring concentrated help to achieve family stability and prevent out-of-home placement.

“Parenting is so hard. Thank you for giving me resources and support to help me to help my son. ~ IIH parent”
