

program overview

Family Centered Treatment (FCT) is an evidenced-based in-home treatment to stabilize youth & families who have experienced trauma and those experiencing complex mental health symptoms. The ultimate goal is to eliminate out-of-home placements and higher levels of care.

This is an enhanced therapeutic service that can work with foster placements, adoptive homes, biological families, and kinship placements.

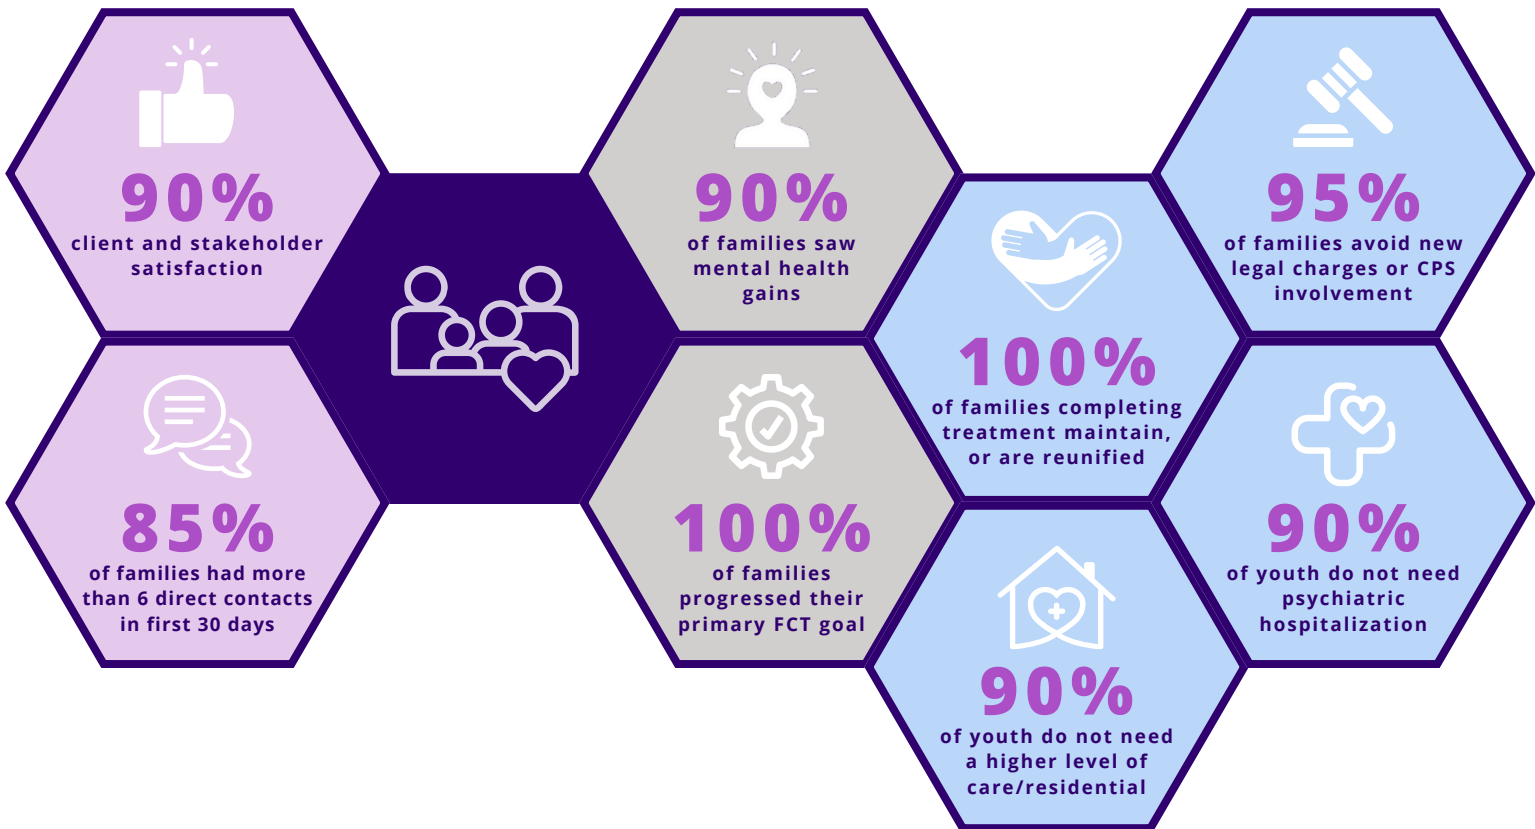

highlights*

*FYTD 2023/2024

programmatic

family functioning

family stabilization

For more details, contact Allie Widener, EBFCT Program Supervisor at 704-771-0057 or awidener@thompsoncff.org