top tier talent

I help support healing, hope & resiliency.

What is your name and position at Thompson?

My name is Brandy Stultz Riffe. I started initially as a Foster Care Coordinator in the West. I currently serve statewide for foster care recruitment, training, and licensing. I also assist with referrals and admissions.

What 'superpower' do you bring to this role?

The 'superpower' I bring to this role is compassion. My ability to view situations with compassion, meet individuals where they are and extend grace remains a personal priority in my professional and personal life.

What's your favorite thing about the Thompson culture?

The emphasis on teamwork is my favorite thing about Thompson culture. You can always reach out to another team member or supervisor for assistance, clarification, or support!

What are you most proud of about your work at Thompson?

I am most proud of the difference I make in the lives of others and the ability to positively impact the life of a child when working with and training foster parents.

If you could sum up your employment with Thompson with a quote - what would it be?

"Every child deserves a champion – an adult who will never give up on them, who understands the power of connection and insists that they become the best they can possibly be." ~ Rita F. Pierson
